

LAW, ETHICS & MEDICINE: FRIENDS OR FOES?

CONFERENCE 2013

ORGANISED BY:

23 - 24 November 2013

Renaissance Hotel, Kuala Lumpur

Conference Overview ►

As healthcare technology progresses, as our medical care system broadens, and as government regulatory dominance expands, our concerns in legal-medical-ethical matters develop along with it. This year's Law, Ethics & Medicine: Friends or Foes Conference's theme endeavours to explore the compatibility of medicine, law and ethics through the sessions covered and how the linear line between the three become circles of inter-connectedness.

Participants will benefit tremendously from key case studies and presentations imparted by professionals at the forefront of both the medical and legal fraternities.

Do not miss out on this exclusive opportunity to network and discuss the insights into both the benefits and limits of modern healthcare law and ethics with Malaysia's leading Medico Legal professionals.
